

LSA 45

Unbound intermediary

Insurance intermediaries entered in the register must meet personal, professional, and financial criteria. Blue Partner AG is entered in the central register of intermediaries as an as an intermediary not legally, economically or in any other way connected to an insurance undertaking to an insurance company, in accordance with Article 43 ISA.

Remuneration

Blue Partner Ltd. receives brokerage commissions from insurers with whom a cooperation agreement has been signed. There is no production or collection obligation between Blue Partner Ltd. and the insurance companies.

The rates of remuneration are calculated on the basis of the net annual premium paid by the client (respectively the valued production) excluding federal stamp duty and any taxes.

The remuneration conditions may vary from one insurance company to another without Blue Partner Ltd being able to influence them.

Liability

Blue Partner Ltd. shall be liable for negligence, misconduct or incorrect advice. These risks are covered by professional liability insurance with an insurance sum of CHF 3,000,000 in economic damages.

Processing of personal data

Data from the contractual documents and the processing of the contracts are forwarded to the relevant insurance companies or banks. Blue Partner Ltd. and its financial partners use this data to prepare offers, calculate premiums, assess risk, process insurance cases, evaluate statistics and conduct marketing. Blue Partner Ltd. undertakes to take all necessary measures to comply with the legal provisions on data protection and to process this data in accordance with the privacy policy. and to treat all data as strictly confidential.

All personal data is stored in electronic and/or paper form. The client shall have the right to be informed at any time of the personal data held by Blue Partner AG and the purpose for which it is stored or processed. However, Blue Partner AG shall not be liable for any theft or data's usurpation of the mandator, particularly in electronic form.